

International Undergraduate Admissions

California State University, San Bernardino serves nearly 18,000 students on its scenic campus in Southern California. Our undergraduate business programs are fully accredited by the AACSB International. CSUSB is also featured on the Princeton Review's "2014 Best Colleges: Region by Region" list.

The CSUSB Advantage

- Internationally recognized accreditation
- State-of-the-art facilities and technology center
- Affordable housing options, both on and off campus
- Friendly and culturally diverse campus
- Conditional admission available
- Merit scholarships based on GPA and availability of funds
- Emphasis on small class size

Accreditations

CSUSB is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, the official accrediting body for institutions of higher learning in the west. The curriculum has 46 baccalaureate degree programs; some of the programs have received specialized approval from organizations recognized by the national Council on Postsecondary Education. CSUSB also ranked among Forbes' top institutions in the West, as well as among the top four-year public institutions in the country.

Convenient Location

Cal State San Bernardino is located in the Inland Empire of Southern California, which is one of the fastest growing regions in the nation. Our scenic university is located at the foothills of the San Bernardino mountains, about 70 miles east of Los Angeles International Airport.

Academic Plan

CSUSB operates on the quarter system. The fall, winter and spring terms each consist of 10 weeks of instruction plus a final exam week. The university also offers a summer quarter, allowing students to accelerate their progress toward their degree. Classes are offered during the day as well as in the evening to accommodate professionals and full/part-time students.

Application Deadlines

Term	Filing Period	Deadline
Fall	October 1	July 1
Winter	June 1	November 1
Spring	August 1	February 1

Conditional Admission

International applicants who meet all admission requirements except the English proficiency requirement, may be granted conditional admission (except B.S. in Nursing) if they enroll in CSUSB's Intensive English Program and successfully complete the Level 5 certificate program. For more information visit the International Extensions Program web site at <http://iep.csusb.edu>.

Transfer Credit

A maximum of 70 transferable semester (105 quarter) units of work taken at a community/junior college can be applied to the requirements for a degree from the university. No upper division credit will be allowed for courses taken at community/junior college. The Office of Records, Registration and Evaluations will evaluate previous college work to determine its applicability to the requirements of the university. If you wish for transfer credit from another college or university to be considered, you may submit a course description or syllabus at a later date. All undergraduate degree candidates will be issued a credit summary, indicating requirements, which remain unfilled.

Visa Information

What do visa officers look for when you apply for an F-1 student visa?

1. Officers must check that you have the ability and intention to be a full-time student in the program and school to which you have been accepted.
2. Officers must check that you have adequate financial resources to pay for your studies and living expenses while in the U.S. without taking unauthorized employment.
3. Officers must check that you have no intention of working in the U.S. and that you do not have intention to immigrate to the U.S.
