

International Graduate Admissions

California State University, San Bernardino serves nearly 18,000 students on its scenic campus in Southern California. Our graduate business programs are fully accredited by the AACSB International. CSUSB is also featured on the Princeton Review's "2014 Best Colleges: Region by Region" list.

The CSUSB Advantage

- Internationally recognized accreditation
- State-of-the-art facilities and technology center
- Affordable housing options, both on and off campus
- Friendly and culturally diverse campus
- Conditional admission available
- Merit scholarships based on GPA and availability of funds
- Emphasis on small class size

Accreditations

CSUSB is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, the official accrediting body for institutions of higher learning in the west. The curriculum has 31 master's degree programs, 15 teaching credential fields, and one doctoral program. CSUSB also ranked among Forbes' top institutions in the West, as well as among the top four-year public institutions in the country.

Convenient Location

Cal State San Bernardino is located in the Inland Empire of Southern California, which is one of the fastest growing regions in the nation. Our scenic university is located at the foothills of the San Bernardino mountains, about 70 miles east of Los Angeles International Airport.

Academic Plan

CSUSB operates on the quarter system. The fall, winter and spring terms each consist of 10 weeks of instruction plus a final exam week. The university also offers a summer quarter, allowing students to accelerate their progress toward their degree. Classes are offered in the evening to accommodate professionals and full/part-time students.

Admission Requirements

1. Possess a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university. Students with a three year Bachelor's degree are eligible to apply.
2. Have or will have a GPA (grade point average) of 3.0 ("B") overall and may also include post-baccalaureate coursework. Master's degrees offered by the College of Business & Public Administration requires a minimum GPA of 2.5 (A = 4.0) in the bachelor's degree in the last 60 semester/90 quarter units.
3. Submit a TOEFL score of 550/PBT or 79-80/IBT, taken within the past two years. Or an academic a band score of 6.0 on the IELTS exam or successfully complete Level 6 of CSUSB's Intensive English Program (except for M.A. in English and M.A. in Communication Studies). If your primary language is not English and you graduated from a non-American university, then you must demonstrate your English proficiency requirement by passing the TOEFL or IELTS. Some programs may require higher test scores.
4. Submit a certified English translation for non-English documents.
5. Submit three letters of recommendation. CSUSB does not require an official format for your letters of recommendation.
6. Meet the GMAT or GRE requirements. All applicants should read the Bulletin of Courses at catalog.csusb.edu to determine if test scores are required for certain graduate programs.
7. Submit a Statement of Purpose. Your statement of purpose needs to be 250 words in length. It should state the reasons for pursuing a master's degree in your intended major and choosing this university.
8. Submit an online international graduate application at csumentor.edu. Please note that some graduate programs require additional application forms.
9. Submit the $55 (U.S.) application fee. By credit card online, personal check, or money order.
10. Submit financial/bank statement.

11. Submit official transcripts, marks sheets, and proof of Bachelor's degree.
12. Submit a photocopy of the page in your passport that contains your official name and date of birth.

Conditional Admission

International applicants who meet all admission requirements except the English proficiency requirement, may be granted conditional admission (except for M.A. in Communication Studies and M.A. in English) if they enroll in CSUSB's Intensive English Program and successfully complete the Level 6 certificate program.
